WORK EXPERIENCE

---

Server

Southland Whiskey Kitchen - Portland, OR

January 2019 to December 2019

Following a thriving tenure at the OSF, Cooper sought a local & niche style of eatery wherein he could better get his thumb on the pulse of the current generation, assist in a smaller company's growth & establish the restaurant's "vibe". Cooper envisions making a mark on society, and after one very enjoyable & fruitful year, he made the tough decision to hang up the apron to once again return to advance his career.

Server

The Old Spaghetti Factory - Portland, OR

September 2017 to January 2019

Cooper periodically bussed and/or served tables throughout college to ensure he could focus most of his energy on the fleeting opportunities that college had to offer. Upon graduating, Cooper gravitated back towards the service industry in order to keep up with costs of living and ultimately found great growth & success in his stint at the The Old Spaghetti Factory. In his tenure with the OSF, Cooper consistently showed up ready to usher the finest dining experience possible and manifested dozens of regulars.

Barista

Starbucks - Monterey, CA

May 2011 to September 2011

Fifteen years old at the time, Cooper desired to ambitiously maintain a full-time schedule in order to save up for his first vehicle. After Summer concluded and upon entering his Junior year of High School, Cooper shifted his focus back to preparing for college & steadily parted ways with the beloved Coffee icon. In his time with Starbucks, Cooper learned to navigate thoughtfully through a very rapid-paced environment & continuously provide support where needed to team members.

GROUPS

---

Camp Kesem Volunteer

September 2014 to September 2018

Camp Kesem provides an annual week-long Summer camp for children who've had parents or loved ones affected by cancer at no expense to the attending camper's families. Cooper assisted in all of the behind-the-scenes preparation which includes collectively fundraising $85,000+ each year in order to sponsor this magical camp; providing weekly meetings to plan & prepare for the vast variety of events that would take place at camp, & otherwise ensuring a safe & inclusive environment for any individual camper.

Delta Sigma Phi

October 2013 to Present

In his time with Delta Sigma Phi, Cooper held a handful of unique positions. Most notably, Cooper held the Historian position which entailed crafting lengthy exhibitions (100+ slides) that highlighted chapter member's personal feats, successes & achievements. The Historian's goal was to illicit excitement in striving for success while engaging in an often tired & inattentive audience of young male adults following lengthy chapter meetings. Channeling his passion for technology as well as his love for entertaining others, Cooper embraced this opportunity to improve his technical skill set while further defining his voice & style of presentation.
